

Icon boards Edge Of Empire

1 June, 2009 | By Audrey Ward

Icon Film Distribution has acquired UK and Australasian rights to Edge Of Empire from UK-based AV Pictures.

The film is written and will be directed by Rob Green and is due to go into production later this year.

Edge of Empire is the first part of epic action trilogy Gladiators Vs Werewolves and is set in AD160 when Rome occupied Britain. It is a story about the discovery of a ferocious tribe of werewolves who are captured and made to fight against the gladiators of ancient Rome.

AV Pictures has also concluded deals for the film in the CIS and the Baltic States (Cinemax), China (ERG Media), Middle East (Eagle), Turkey (Horizon), Singapore (Shaws) and Thailand, Philippines, Malaysia, India, Indonesia & Vietnam (PT Parkit). The company is also in negotiations on other key territories.

Those working behind the scenes include special make-up & creature effects artist Shaune Harrison, who has worked on the three most recent Harry Potter films and Star Wars Episode II, second unit director of photography Peter Field (Quantum of Solace, Hot Fuzz, Troy and Lara Croft: Tomb Raider) and visual effects producer Tim Field (Batman Begins, 28 Weeks Later).

Lee Brazier and Angad Paul are producing for AV Pictures.

Link to the online page; <http://www.screendaily.com/news/distribution/uk-ireland/icon-boards-edge-of-empire/5002020.article>